Early Childhood: Teacher/Caregiver-Certificate (C55220TT)

The Early Childhood Teacher/Caregiver certificate is an introduction to Early Childhood Education. This curriculum prepares individuals to work with children from infancy through middle childhood in diverse learning environments. Students will combine learned theories with practice in actual settings with young children under the supervision of qualified teachers. Courses marked with an asterisk (*) have been approved for transfer under the CAA as a premajor and/or elective course requirement.
