Upcoming Showcase of Stars Events at the Broyhill Civic Center

FPA Presents “The Diary of Anne Frank”

Feb. 8-10; 7 p.m. nightly, two shows on Saturday at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m.

The talented, local players at Foothills Performing Arts will bring to life the Tony Award-winning play, “The Diary of Anne Frank.” The haunting story, based on Frank’s memoirs, chronicles the nearly two year time period that Anne and her family spend in hiding to escape Nazi persecution in World War II era Holland. Tickets are $14 for adults, $12 for students over 12 and $7.50 for children 12 and under.

“A Temptations Revue featuring Bo Henderson” • Thursday, Feb. 15, 7:30 p.m.

Bringing the unforgettable songs of Motown back to the J.E. Broyhill Civic Center is “A Temptations Revue” featuring former lead singer of the Temptations and Grammy Award winner Barrington “Bo” Henderson (1998-2003), one of the only Temptations lead singers to have received a Grammy. This dynamic and driving show spans more than a decade of Temptations classics, every one of these songs among the most recognizable and culture-defining songs in pop music history: “My Girl,” “Papa Was a Rollin’ Stone,” “Get Ready,” “Ain’t Too Proud To Beg,” “Just My Imagination,” “I Wish It Would Rain” and so many more! Tickets are $20 for adults and $12 for students/children.

Mnozil Brass • Saturday, Feb. 24, 7:30 p.m.

Mnozil Brass is an Austrian brass septet. They play classical, jazz and other styles of music using traditional brass instruments and more unusual instruments such as the customized rotary valved trumpet and bass trumpet. Music is presented with a typical Austrian style of humor. Elements of slapstick exist next to virtuosic brass playing. Tickets are $26 for adults and $16 for students/children.

CCC&TI Music Instructor Joins Panthers PurrCussion for Holiday Game

Jessica Alexander, who teaches Music Appreciation at Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute's Watauga Campus in Boone, performed Christmas songs with the Carolina Panthers PurrCussion Drumline during the first and third quarters of the Dec. 24 game versus the Tampa Bay Buccaneers at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte. Alexander, who is a graduate of Appalachian State University and the San Francisco Conservatory, played horn on the group's renditions of "It's Beginning To Look A Lot Like Christmas" and "Winter Wonderland." A native of High Point, Alexander now lives in Boone and has been teaching on the Watauga Campus since the Fall 2016 semester.

Johnson County H.S. Visits Watauga Campus

Students from Johnson County High School (Mountain City, Tenn.) toured the Watauga Campus on Friday, Jan. 26. The tour included information about CCC&TI programs and facilities, as well as a cooking demonstration by the Culinary Arts program. The students learned to cook Chicken Alfredo. We appreciate the visit, and hope to see lots of these students on campus in the future.

Big changes are on the way for the Watauga Campus! Workers have been busy in recent weeks with site preparations for the new Student Services Center.

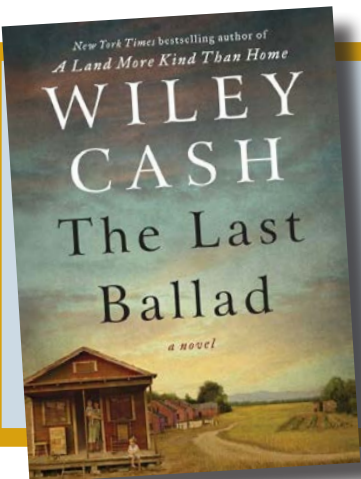

CCC&TI broke ground Sept. 20, 2017 on a transformative project on the growing Watauga Campus in Boone. The 15,000-square-foot building will consolidate services currently offered in multiple locations on campus into one area.

The building, slated for completion later this year, will feature a large student gathering area and will house the following services: Academic Support, Admissions, Advising, Bookstore, Business Office, Counseling, Financial Aid, Library, Testing Center and the Writing Center.

Cobras off to a great start to 2018

The Cobras have continued their success from 2017 into the start of 2018, and are gearing up for the final stretch before tournament time. Headed into the month of February, the Cobras are 15-5 and have only one conference loss.

In the first contest after returning from the winter break the Cobras earned a hard fought 96-91 win over Sandhills Community College. The offense was led by guard Chase Byrd who scored 32 points in his season debut. Byrd was one of four Caldwell players to score in double digits.

In a rematch with Combine Academy, the Cobras earned a 108-82 victory led by Byrd's 28 points. Byrd was joined in scoring in double figures by fellow guards Jaylon Wray, Trevor Willis and Omari Koffa who scored 21, 20, and 12 points respectively.

In a Jan. 13 showdown, the Caldwell Cobras bested the Brunswick Dolphins 95-83 to earn a 1-0 mark in Region X conference play. This game also marked the third straight game that the Cobras score, 95 or more points, their longest stretch of the season with at least 95 points.

The Cobras then defeated conference foe Denmark Tech 79-74, led by Wray's 22 points, 8 rebounds, 5 assists and 2 steals. Wray led fellow guards Byrd, who had 18 points, and Willis, who scored 14 points, in double digit scoring for the Cobras.

The Cobras' conference winning streak continued with an 85-71 win over USC-Salkehatchie, led by Willis' 19 points and Byrd's 14-point, 11-rebound performance.

The conference winning streak came to an end with a 73-69 road loss at Spartanburg Methodist.
