CCC&TI Landscape Gardening at 50th Anniversary Southern Spring Show!

CCC&TI's Landscape Gardening students will feature their hard work in an exhibit at the 50th annual Southern Spring Home & Garden Show in Charlotte March 3-7.

The exhibit, entitled "Celebrate: New Beginnings – A Children's Garden," will be an interactive learning environment designed to delight kids of all ages. The exhibit will feature a tulip rainbow, play tunnel, tree house, water feature and lush plants.

CCC&TI students and instructors have been working on the exhibit since July 2009. More than 20 students have participated in the project. CCC&TI is the only school in the show's 50-year history to win the "Best of Show" top prize and has brought home a number of other awards in recent years as well.

In addition to exhibits from top landscape professionals, the show features building and home improvement, outdoor living, kitchen and bath, arts and crafts, green building and interior decor.

The show runs March 3-7 at The Park (former Charlotte Merchandise Mart). For details, visit www.southernspringhomeandgardenshow.com.
