Students in Matt Malloy’s COM 120 104- Interpersonal Communication course held an Interview Seminar, Tues., Dec. 7, from 12 to 12:50 p.m. in E-120 on the Caldwell Campus, which was open to all students. The class, which calls itself the Caldwell Communicators, provided information on resumes, dressing for interviews and interview followups. Guest speakers were Ben Sigmon, a CCC&TI Information Systems Technology instructor, and Dana Glenn, Coordinator, Student Employment Services. Student speakers during the event were Emily Blake, Tasha Meadows and Shane Griffin. The seminar was part of a course project.

CCC&TI’s Fall 2004 Chorus will perform its 2004 Christmas Concert in the FPA Theatre at 12:15 p.m. on Thursday, December 9. This chorus is under the direction of Rhonda Smith this year, and the concert will feature several solo performances and special surprise guest.

Photography and Pottery Student Art Exhibit opens Dec. 10 from noon to 2 p.m. at the Seila Gallery on the Caldwell Campus. View the works of photography instructor David Hessell and his students in this showcase.

CCC&TI invites you to its Christmas Covered Dish Luncheon on Dec. 16 at 12:30 p.m. at the J.E. Broyhill Civic Center. Bring your favorite vegetable, dressing, casserole, salad or dessert dishes to share with your friends and colleagues, and try out everyone’s signature dishes. CCC&TI will provide the turkey, ham, gravy and paper products. Contact Debbie Clement by Dec. 9 with the name of the dish you plan to bring to help the planning committee coordinate the menu. For more information, call 828.726.2200 or e-mail dclement@cccti.edu.

Instructors: Grades are due to Student Services no later than 12 p.m., Friday, Dec. 17.

Job openings: The following full-time positions are available. To apply, contact Human Resources at 828.726.2499 or visit www.cccti.edu/hr for an official application packet.

- Production Technical Assistant, Civic Center. Qualifications: Completion of the 12th grade. Two years of increasingly responsible experience in technical theater or hospitality preferred. Application deadline: December 10, 2004.

- Counselor, College and Career Liaison (3 positions). Responsibilities: Provides a comprehensive set of career and academics assessment and counseling services and resources to aid in the transition of high school students to appropriate vocational training and/or post-secondary education, with a concentration on those students seeking, or in need of, a community college education. Responsible also for connecting high school students to the Community College System through Huskins and Dual Enrollment Programs, and for connecting recent high school dropouts to adult basic education.

What’s Inside
- Lettermen play JEBCC
- Exam Schedules
- Scholarship Bulletins
- Cobras Season So Far

Calendar
- 9
  - Business Club, Noon, CCC&TI Chorus Concert, 12:15 p.m., FPA Theater
  - Watauga Christmas Social and Door Decorating Contest
  - Watauga Workshop: Career Clarification and Planning, 5:15 - 6:15 p.m., Room TBA
- 10
  - Puddingstone, 7:30 p.m., Civic Center
  - Photography Exhibit. Opening, 12-2 p.m., Seila Gallery

Birthdays
- Dan Cline (6), Aaron Cook (6), Michael Philyaw (6), Melodie Yancey (8), Cheryl Miller (9), Cheryl Bolt (10), Ron Poteat (12)
The Lettermen kick off holiday season

The Lettermen, the singing trio comprised of Tony Butala, Donovan Scott Tea and Darren Dowler, will perform at the J.E. Broyhill Civic Center on December 17 as part of their Christmas Concert tour.

For 44 years, the Lettermen have been making harmonious music with their first hit “The Way You Look Tonight” coming out in 1961. Other hits include “Our Winter Love,” “Graduation Day,” “When I Fall in Love,” “Shangri-La” and “Put Your Head On My Shoulder.” More currently, the group has been featuring renditions of “My Heart Will Go On,” “Everything I Do (I Do It For You),” “Unchained Melody” and “Wind Beneath My Wings.” In 2001, the Lettermen were voted into the Vocal Hall of Fame.

The Lettermen have sung and recorded in over fourteen languages and have toured in Japan, the Philippines, China, Thailand, Singapore, Korea, Hong Kong, Germany, France, South America, Canada and Mexico.

Opening for the Lettermen will be the Acapella Fellas, a popular local barbershop quartet from Hickory.

This holiday concert, sponsored by the Broyhill Family Foundation, is perfect for the Christmas season and will certainly put you in the holiday spirit. Ticket prices range from $25.50 to $28.50.

The local group Puddingstone will perform at the J.E. Broyhill Civic Center on December 10 as part of Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute’s performing artist series.

Puddingstone began as a duo when David Abernethy and Mike Willis, two former Lenoir High School Band percussionists, began playing music together for their own enjoyment. Puddingstone has evolved into a talented group of musicians consisting of David Abernethy, Alice Barlowe, Denise Baxter-Yoder, Paul Holt, Doug Stringham, Suzanne Williams and Mike Willis.

Puddingstone brings to life music from another era, melding new and old instruments into a unique blend of sound. Puddingstone has recorded several CD’s including Christmas Pudding, Light of Love, Christmas Past and For Our Children.

Puddingstone’s holiday concert will help you usher in the holiday season.

For more information or to purchase tickets, contact the J.E. Broyhill Civic Center box office at (828)726-2407. Visa, MasterCard, and Discover are accepted.

Caldwell Campus Fall 2004 Exam Schedules

To determine your exam time, find the starting time and days of your regularly scheduled class. The exam time appears in the column on the far left. For example, if you have a class that meets at 10 a.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays, your final exam will be on Wed., Dec. 15 from 8 a.m. to 9:50 a.m. in the room where you normally meet for class.

Classes that are not listed should have exams during the time slots which do not already have exams scheduled. Instructors should check with department chairs before scheduling exams during these free periods to avoid conflicts.

Students with a conflict caused by two exams scheduled at the same time should contact their instructors to work out different exam times.

Students who have more than three exams on any one day also should contact their instructors.

Night classes: Exams for evening courses will be given the last class period as scheduled by the instructor.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Dec. 13</th>
<th>Dec. 14</th>
<th>Dec. 15</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>8 a.m. - 9:50 a.m.</td>
<td>8 MWF</td>
<td>9 MWF</td>
<td>10 MWF</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10 a.m. - 11:50 a.m.</td>
<td>12 MWF</td>
<td>11 MWF</td>
<td>8 &amp; 9 TTh</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12 p.m. - 1:50 p.m.</td>
<td>10 &amp; 11 TTh</td>
<td>1 &amp; 2 TTh</td>
<td>1 MWF</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2 p.m. - 3:50 p.m.</td>
<td>2 MWF</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 p.m. - 5:50 p.m.</td>
<td>3 TTh</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The following scholarships are available to CCC&TI students, though some may have special requirements. Dianne Henderson, Director, Financial Aid, urges students to investigate all financial aid opportunities. Many local organizations have created scholarship funds either through the CCC&TI Foundation or through their own foundations. For more information about the opportunities included in this bulletin or other opportunities, call 828.726.2713 (Caldwell) or 828.297.2185 (Watauga).

Moving Lives Forward Reintegration Scholarship

Sponsored by Eli Lilly and Company, this scholarship seeks to help people with schizophrenia, related schizophrenia-spectrum disorders or bi-polar disorder acquire the educational and vocational skills necessary to reintegrate into society, obtain secure jobs and regain their lives. The 2005-2006 Moving Lives forward Reintegration Scholarship program offers financial assistance for a wide range of educational opportunities where students work to attain a certificate or degree. Eligible programs include:

- High school equivalency
- Trade or vocational school
- Associate degrees
- Bachelor degrees
- Masters degrees

Note that correspondence and distance learning courses, online courses and non-credit courses are not covered under the scholarship. Also, the scholarship is only available to U.S. citizens attending classes within the United States.

Eligibility. Applicants must meet the following requirements:

- Be diagnosed with schizophrenia, schizophreniform disorder, schizoaffective disorder or bipolar disorder.
- Be currently receiving medical treatment, including medications and psychiatric follow-up.
- Complete an application package that includes an application form, essay, transcripts, recommendation forms from three references and school financial requirements.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). For students seeking financial assistance for adult high school or GED, this is not required.

NC CPA Foundation Scholarship

The North Carolina CPA Foundation Board awards 33 scholarships to college students who have completed at least one accounting course and also must have completed 26 hours by spring with a 3.0 GPA. The top award is $5,000. Application deadline is Feb. 9, 2005. For application materials, visit CCC&TI's Financial Aid office.

National Federation of the Blind

This scholarship fund offers awards from $3,000 to $12,000 to part- or full-time students who are legally blind. NFB scholarships are awarded on the basis of scholastic excellence, financial need, and community service. Applications and applications requirements are available from www.nfb.org (Click Services and then click Scholarships link). Application deadline is March 31, 2005.

North Carolina Society of Accountants

The North Carolina Society of Accountants Scholarship Foundation was formed in 1970 to provide financial assistance to deserving students who indicate a desire to become professional accountants. The eligibility requirements are:

- North Carolina residency
- Enrollment in accredited school of higher education in North Carolina
- Enrollment in an accounting degree program with six or more hours per semester.
- Must show a firm intent to continue in the field of Accounting.

Along with the application, applicants must provide the additional supporting data:

- Recent photograph
- Two letters of reference from individuals who are not family.
- A letter of intent, explaining why the applicant has chosen this career
- Most recent transcript of grades.
- If applicants are dependents of their parents, enclose a copy of their Federal Income Tax Return for tax year 2004 (page 1 and 2 of all schedules). If applicants file taxes independently, enclose a copy of 2004's tax returns.
- If you are an employed with an Accountant or Accounting firm, please enclose a letter from your employer stating their support of your intent to continue your education in accounting.

Applications are due by April 15, 2005. Scholarship winners will be notified no later than May 31, 2005. Applications are available from CCC&TI's Financial Aid Office.

Continued from Page 1

skills programs, including the Adult High School Diploma Program and GED. Qualifications: Minimum of 2 years experience in high school or college counseling preferred. Eligibility for licensure as licensed school counselor or as NC Licensed Professional Counselor required. Computer/MS Office skills desired; valid driver's license required. Master's degree in counseling, psychology or social work from an accredited college or university required. Application deadline: Dec. 17.
Two narrow losses came as heart-stoppers for Cobra fans over the weekend as CCC&Ti nearly edged by Brunswick Community College and Truett-McConnell College. Both opponents, undefeated Division I teams, found the Cobras too close for comfort in a couple of nail-biting matchups at home in the Cobra Pit.

Friday’s game against Brunswick ended with a mere 4-point loss at 90-86 followed by a 5-point loss to nationally-ranked Truett-McConnell College of Georgia on Saturday. The Cobras led by as much as ten points in the second half. (Truett-McConnell had defeated Forsyth Tech. Community College by 137-30 on Friday.)

The Cobras racked up another win on the road on Sunday, Dec. 5, against St. Andrews Presbyterian College, 72-59, after a 35-35 score at the half.

“I saw some very positive things out there this weekend and look forward to getting into conference play,” said Head Coach Bill Payne. The Cobras’ record now stands at 5-7.

Season summaries so far

In their first game of the season on November 2, the Cobras were defeated by Spartanburg Methodist College, 64-62. The Cobras were sent to defeat after missing 19 free throws. “The effort was great,” said Coach Payne. Ty Horton led in the scoring with 19 points and Dwight Johnson added 10 points. Jeremy Coffey led the rebounding with six rebounds and James Watts added another five rebounds. Johnson also led with four assists.

On November 6, the Cobras came back to defeat Southern Wesleyan University 77-76. The Cobras were trailing by 18 points in the second half but battled back for the win. Ty Horton and James Watts led in the scoring with each scoring 17 points. Damel Wilson led the rebounding with 12 rebounds and Dwight Johnson led assists having five assists.

The Cobras were successful again on November 7, defeating Oxford College 83-79. Ca-Bryant Smarr led the scoring with 18 points. Ty Horton and Tyler Dellinger each scored 16 points and Justin Mack and Dwight Johnson each scored 12 points. Justin Mack and Damel Wilson both led in the rebounding with seven rebounds each. Dwight Johnson led assists with six.

On November 11, the Cobras were defeated by Virginia’s Massanutten Military Academy in overtime. MMA’s superior size took over in overtime, defeating the Cobras 89-83. Ty Horton led the scoring with 24 points. Tyler Dellinger scored 19 points and Ca-Bryant Smarr scored 16 points. Tyler Dellinger led the rebounding with 12 rebounds. Ty Horton had eight rebounds and Ca-Bryant Smarr had 7 rebounds. Dwight Johnson led in the assists with four and Ty Horton added three assists.

The Cobras were defeated by New River Community College 72-65 on November 13. “We just took them for granted,” said Coach Payne. “The best team won this game. They outworked us in every part of the game and deserved to win.” The Cobras committed 27 turnovers and had only 10 assists. Justin Mack was the only player to reach double figures in scoring with 13 points. Tyler Dellinger led rebounding with nine rebounds, and James Watts added seven rebounds. Dwight Johnson and Justin Mack led assists with each having three.

The Cobras were defeated by Cape Fear Community College 81-72 on November 14. “I think we played with them the whole game but just fell a little short at the end,” said Coach Payne. Ty Horton led the scoring with 24 points and Justin Mack scored 14 points. Tyler Dellinger led with nine rebounds and Dwight Johnson led with five assists.

The Cobras had a huge win over Wilkes Community College on November 16. The Cobras defeated Wilkes 98-56. “It was the best team effort so far this season,” said Coach Payne. Four players scored in the double digits. Ty Horton led the scoring with 26 points. Damel Wilson scored 14 points and James Watts and Dwight Johnson both scored 11 points each. The team’s score of 98 was a season high. Damel Wilson led the rebounding with 10 and Tyler Dellinger added eight rebounds. The team’s 53 rebounds were also a season high. Dwight Johnson led with eight assists, a season high for him. The Cobras had 23 assists in the game, another season high.

The Cobras defeated Anderson College, 81-65 on November 18. Ty Horton led the scoring with 16 points. Tyler Dellinger and James Watts added 14 points each. Tyler Dellinger led the rebounding with 10 and Damel Wilson added six rebounds. Matt France and Dwight Johnson led with 3 assists each.

After two huge victories, the Cobras fell to Spartanburg Methodist College on November 24. The Cobras were defeated 80-58. James Watts was the only Cobra to score in the double digits with 12 points. Matt France, Justin Mack and Tyler Dellinger led the rebounding with each having five. Dwight Johnson led with four assists.

What’s coming

The Cobras must prepare for the Cobra Christmas Classic Tournament, which will be held December 17 and 18. Four teams, CCC&Ti, Catawba Valley Community College, Forsyth Technical Community College and a fourth team yet to be determined, will participate in the Christmas Classic.

On December 30, the Cobras will host Suffolk County Community College from New York at 6 p.m. Suffolk County Community College is the number one ranked Division III team in the nation. The Foothills Radio Group will be giving away a pair of tickets to the UNC vs. Clemson game (Feb. 19th) at the Suffolk game. They will broadcast live on WJRI 1340 AM that night.

For complete game summaries and scores, visit www.ccccti.edu.