All check disbursement dates are contingent upon funding from federal, state and local resources as well as attendance verification. The Office of Financial Aid reserves the right to cancel or postpone refunds due to conflicting information. If it is determined you are ineligible for aid for any reason after disbursement, you will be financially responsible for repayment of the funds to the college and/or the Department of Education.

Dropping all classes within a semester could create a balance on your student account. All account balances must be paid in full prior to registration for any future term.
