Book

Selection from an Anthology (and an edition of a book other than the first edition)

More than One Selection from the Same Anthology

Online Newspaper Article

Article from CNN (or Fox or MSNBC, etc.)

Online Journal Article from a Subscription Database (Volume and Issue)

Article from J-STOR (or Project Muse, etc.)

Online Journal Article from a Subscription Database (Volume, but no Issue)

Online Magazine Article
Sample MLA Works Cited – 2009-2010

Notes:

- The works cited page should be double-spaced (as should your entire document in MLA format); it should also use twelve-point font.
- Alphabetize the works cited page; do not number entries.
- The first line of each entry should not be indented; the second, third, fourth, etc. line(s) should be indented five spaces (or ½ inch). This is also called a “reverse indentation” or a “hanging indentation.”
- If no author is given, begin with the title. If you have a journal article, newspaper, magazine article, etc. that is in print form – not online – simply omit any information after the page number.
- If no date of publication is given, use n.d.
- If no publisher is given for web sites, use N.p.
- Titles of books, magazines, journals, and subscription databases are italicized.
- Do not underline.
- The reason Wikipedia is not included among the sample entries is Wikipedia is not a scholarly source (there is no editorial board)! Encyclopedias are a resource to consult and consider as an avenue for future research; they are not material acceptable for a scholarly paper.